

STOPPING WORKPLACE BULLYING IN HEALTHCARE

Presenter: Sara Markle-Elder, Asst. Director
AFT Nurses and Health Professionals

Workplace bullying is huge problem within healthcare, causing many healthcare professionals to leave the profession. Whether perpetrated by managers or co-workers, bullying often goes unchecked. Bullying has serious impacts on the health and well-being of the victim and even impacts bystanders. Come and learn union solutions for protecting individuals and working with management to change the culture of bullying.

2.0 Contact Hours Awarded

The American Federation of Teachers/Nurses and Health Professionals is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. There has been no commercial support of this program and the presenter declares there is no conflict of interest. At the completion of the program, participants will report increased self-confidence in reporting bullying incidents. Participants will be awarded 2.0 contact hours by signing in, attending 100 percent of the workshop and completing an evaluation.

Nov. 26, 2018 (Monday)

5:30pm to 7:30pm

Dinner will be served.

AFT CT Office
35 Marshall Rd.
Rocky Hill, 2nd Fl.

RSVP online:

<https://leadernet.aft.org/webform/workplace-bullying>

or call 860.257.9782