

AFT Connecticut
A Union of Professionals

presents to our TEACHER members...

December 18, 2018

TUESDAY

5-7pm

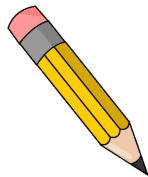

Soifer Room @ AFT CT

Light dinner provided

WHY ATTEND?

- So that you can teach and the students (all of them) can learn.
- Because every student is entitled to the best education possible without fear of interruption, distraction, or harassment.
- Because classroom decorum must be taught for the benefit of all.
- Because teachers have the right to teach and not have other students detract from the learning environment.
- Because teaching is a joyous and creative way to spend your life and a well-run classroom only adds to that joy!
- To make school the engaging, creative, and nurturing environment where everyone flourishes!

Come learn how to create an effective classroom management plan, implement certain routines and procedures that enhance the effectiveness of your class, and provide students the responsibility to participate in making the class run smoothly and effectively.

Presenter: Gary Lotreck

Hartford Teachers #1018 Member

Gary is nationally trained by the AFT in professional learning and has 30 years of experience in teaching, instructional coaching, & professional development. He was also the Hartford Public Schools' 2016 Teacher of the Year, a 2017 Connecticut State Teacher of the Year Semi-finalist, has taught grades 7-12 and teaches courses in graduate school. His true passion is working with teachers to support them in more effective teaching and learning and making their professional lives more joyful!

Register online at <https://leadernet.aft.org/webform/classroom-management> or call the office at 860-257-9782

