

In 1987, 28 construction workers were killed when the L'Ambiance Plaza building collapsed due to faulty lift slab, making it the worst construction accident in the state's history. Every year organized labor, family members and friends have gathered to remember and pay tribute to the workers who died, their families, the rescue workers and all those who assisted in any way during and after the collapse.

MOURN for the dead...
FIGHT for the living

Every year AFT Connecticut joins our sisters and brothers in the Connecticut AFL-CIO on April 28 to observe Workers Memorial Day in remembrance of lives lost on the job. This event is more than a remembrance; it's a recommitment to the freedom of all workers to form unions so they can speak out and negotiate better and safer futures.
