

Matt - here is your April, 2017 e-newsletter (with updates since early-March):

Union Members in the Spotlight

To celebrate Women's History Month, we highlighted a nurse who believes our communities "need a lot more women going into civic roles." Click here to meet a healthcare union leader who successfully ran for local political office in her home town.

Resisting Politicians' Attacks on Collective Bargaining

Union members in late March turned out by the thousands to defeat "offensive legislation that threatens a voice for all working people." Click here for a report-back from the State Capitol where public employees spearheaded a fight to protect fundamental rights.

Supporting the Global Defense of Public Services

Union leaders from Connecticut in late March represented our state and nation at a Public Services International (PSI) inter-Americas conference in Brazil. Click here to watch a probation officer show solidarity at a demonstration opposing privatization in Rio de Janeiro.

Bringing the "Better Choices" Message to Our Legislators

In local communities throughout March, union members brought their questions, concerns and demands direct to their elected representatives in the Connecticut General Assembly. Click here for photos of area lawmakers hearing from members and leaders at the Hartford regional legislative meeting.

Taking Action for Judicial Checks and Balances

Ahead of confirmation hearings for President Donald Trump's high court pick, union members in mid March urged action by Connecticut's U.S. senators. Click here for a report on efforts to call for tough questions of U.S. Supreme Court nominee Neil Gorsuch.

Instructors Win Union Recognition

Classroom instructors at EASTCONN in mid March received good news when the regional educational service center's administration agreed to voluntarily recognize their union. Click here for a photo of organizing committee members celebrating the big win for themselves and their students.

Promoting Solutions to the Student Debt Crisis

Union members in early March came to Hartford to back a legislative proposal to help increase access to federal loan forgiveness services. Click here for a photo of a technical high school teacher urging lawmakers act to help reduce student debt.

Celebrating a National Union Scholarship Winner

Ahead of the application deadline for AFT's 2017 Porter Scholars Program we highlighted a local union member awarded a grant last year. Click here to meet a teacher in Bristol and hear how she applied the funds towards her continuing education.

Upcoming Activities & Events

- April 8 - 11: Regional Legislative Meetings
- April 11: Intro to Excel Spreadsheets Training
- April 18: D.U.E. Justice Coalition Tax Day Rally for Budget Justice
- April 22: First Book Delivery to Norwalk Families
- April 28: CT AFL-CIO Capitol Workers Memorial Day Ceremony
- April 29: People's Climate Movement March for Climate, Jobs & Justice
- May 1: #UnionProud Campaign Social Media Share
- May 9: Legal Issues Training for Teachers & Paras
- May 13: AFT Connecticut 70th Annual Business Convention

Featured Benefit

- Union Plus: Discounts on Gifts & Flowers