Getting Out the Union Vote on August 14th *

Members of affiliated locals have been "all in" for the Connecticut AFL-CIO's "Labor 2018" efforts in the run up to this year's Primary Election. Click here for a photo of activists preparing to visit union households and advocate for labor-endorsed candidates.

Sharing How the "U and I in Union" Protects Our Jobs

A UConn information technology professional's experience illustrates the value of both a strong union contract and solidarity in the workplace when jobs are on the line. Click here to meet a higher education support staffer whose colleagues stepped up to "have my layoff rescinded."

Keeping the Election Focused on the Issues *

Union activists this month continued engaging with the candidates who've earned our state federation's endorsement to further advocate for policies important to working families. Click here for photos of a meeting where our choice for attorney general heard from public employee members.

Recognizing Our Own "AFT Heroes"

Local members were in mid July honored at our national union's convention for volunteering this spring on a relief mission to the U.S. Virgin Islands. Click here for our report on the five Backus Hospital nurses who learned "how big our union is."

Taking Our "U and I in Union" Message Nationwide

Over 120 delegates from Connecticut were among the more than 3,000 from across the country to gather in Pittsburgh for AFT's four-day biennial convention. Click here for photos of local leaders engaged in a variety of activities aimed at strengthening our movement.

Continuing Connecticut Leadership at the National Level

Our state federation president was at the convention re-elected to serve another two-year term as a vice president on AFT's executive council. Click here for a photo of Jan Hochadel and fellow national union leaders after delegates' votes were announced.

Seizing "An Opportunity to Organize"

Rank-and-file members and labor leaders in the aftermath of the Janus lawsuit decision demonstrated how the "U and I in Union" keeps us strong. Click here to watch highlights of events organized around the state where they showed that "we're sticking together."

Standing Up to Politicians' Shameful Scapegoating

A Republican legislative leader in early July exploited state employee union members' contractually-negotiated bonuses for a media attack designed "to score political points." Click here for our report on the incident and its roots in the assault on collective bargaining rights.
