

AFT Connecticut
A Union of Professionals

CEA
Advocating for teachers
and public education

TOGETHER PRESENT THIS WEBINAR
TO OUR TEACHER & PARA MEMBERS

SIMPLE, SUSTAINABLE APPROACHES TO REKINDLE JOY FOR OURSELVES AND OUR STUDENTS

THURS | MARCH 30 | 5PM | ZOOM

Looking for ways to bring more joy to your instruction? Wondering how to make teaching feel more meaningful and purposeful? Struggling with compassion fatigue or looking to find your way again after loss? Let's come together to rekindle joy for ourselves and our students while honoring what we have lost the past few years. In this session, Dr. Katie Egan Cunningham will share simple routines based on the science of happiness to help build stronger connections, develop student agency, and reignite energy in your classroom.

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER, OR SCAN:

PART OF A 3 PART WEBINAR SERIES!

PRESENTER

Dr. Katie Egan Cunningham's work focuses on rehumanizing schools and rekindling joy in our classrooms and in our lives. She is a former elementary school teacher, literacy specialist, and instructional coach, and now an Associate Professor of Teacher Education at Sacred Heart University. Katie is the author of several books for teachers, as well as articles in journals such as Language Arts, Educational Leadership, and the Educational Forum. You can learn more about Katie and her work at www.katieegancunningham.com.

(860) 257-9782

www.aftct.org

35 Marshall Rd, Rocky Hill, CT 06067

